Human Design is not intended to diagnose, treat, cure, or prevent any disease. It should not be used as the basis for treating particular symptoms or diseases, nor should it replace any prescribed treatment you are currently undergoing. We make no medical claims whatsoever.

It is important to note and respect that this system does not provide answers to all parenting questions. For instance, Human Design does not specifically address ADHD, ADD, diagnosed Anxiety Disorders, Trauma, or severe Behavioural Issues. Everyone's circumstances are unique. Supernatural Coaching does not have detailed knowledge of your specific family dynamic and is not a qualified children's physician or medical practitioner. The content provided aims to offer general information to assist you in your journey towards emotional and spiritual wellbeing and conscious parenting. The suggestions, tips, and questioning tools are there to facilitate conversations, reframe assumptions, and open your child's mind to different perspectives.

- Information provided is not intended for medical use, diagnostically, therapeutically, or otherwise. It is not intended to replace the relationship with a qualified healthcare professional and should not be considered medical advice.
- This content is a sharing of knowledge and information based on extensive research and practical experience.
- We encourage you to make your own healthcare decisions based on your research and in partnership with a qualified healthcare professional.
- If you are dealing with a serious health condition, always consult a qualified medical practitioner first.

Disclaimer: While Human Design is underpinned by scientific research, its connection to health and wellness has not been extensively explored or demonstrated. Human Design is aimed at supporting energetic balance and enhancing recovery, vitality, and wellbeing, rather than curing, treating, mitigating, diagnosing, or preventing any disease.
